UNION COUNTY CONTINGENT SWEEPS 1984 SCHOLASTICS

By Robert Singletary

For many years, Joe Stegall has worked to build a strong scholastic program in eastern Union County, and over the past decade he has had reasonable success. However, in 1984 his hard work was rewarded in tremendous fashion as Forest Hills High School and East Union Middle School won their respective divisions in the 1984 North Carolina Scholastics held at North Garner Junior High School April 6-8.

In the 94-person post-elementary section, Mark Seawell of Garner High School won the individual title for the third consecutive year with a 5.5-0.5 score, only surrendering a draw to Stuart Berkowitz in round four. In second place was John Lee of Independence High School, who finished with a 5-1 result after losing to Seawell in the last round. In third place with an identical 5-1 score was John Kirby of Independence, who also lost to Seawell in round five.

Among middle school/junior high school individuals, Quinn Swanger of North Garner Junior High School took top honors with a 5-1 result. In second place also with a 5-1 result was Edward Biddix of East Union Middle School. Kevin Kirby of Charlotte Albemarle Junior High School placed third with a 4.5-1.5 result.

In the team standings, Forest Hills High School of Union County won by a comfortable two and one-half point margin with a score of 18.5. Forest Hills' team was made up of Allen Edwards, Tony Cato, Willard Haigler, Robert Cameron, Christopher Davis, and Christopher Edwards. Forest Hills stayed in second and third virtually the entire way before taking the lead for good in round five. Forest Hills' victory marked the first time since 1977 that a team from outside the Research Triangle area has won the high school title. In second place with 16 points was Enloe while in third place (with the same score) was South Caldwell High School. Two-time defending champion North Carolina School of Science and Mathematics finished a close fourth with 15.5 points while Charlotte Independence, after picking up only one point in the final round, finished fifth with 15.

The round-by-round high school team scores are listed below:

In the middle school/junior high school division, East Union A got off to a terrible start, picking up only 6.5 points in the first three rounds; but East Union scored 9.5 points in the second half of the tournament to erase a three-point deficit in defeating Martin A by a point and a half. Martin held a slim lead entering the final round but only managed one point out of a possible four in the last round. East Union A's team was composed of Edward Biddix, Hung Crow, David Williams, Nancy Sherwood, Devin McRorie, Leslie Mitchum, Jeremy Carnes, Chadwick Whitley, Mika Stegall, and Eric Presson. In third place was defending champion Hudson with 14, in fourth was Ligon with 10.5, and in fifth was North Garner with 10.5 as well.

The round-by-round middle school team scores are listed below:

1. Albemarle JHS	1.0	2.0	3.0	3.5	3.5	4.5

Unfortunately, the turnout for the elementary section was extremely disappointing as there were only 43 elementary players. However, the competition was still fierce with First Ward Elementary of Charlotte winning top honors with a score of 19.5, outdistancing defending champion Hunter of Raleigh by three points. Conn of Raleigh finished third with 16 while Douglas of Raleigh finished fourth with 15.

In the individual competition, Rafael Goldberg of First Ward finished first with a perfect 6-0 result. Due to his sparkling performance, he will certainly be in the top ten on the July top fifty lists. In second place was Benji Melenson of First Ward, who finished with a 5-1 score after losing to Goldberg in the last round. In third was William Corkey of Douglas and in fourth was Chris Chang of Hunter each with 5-1 results.

Many thanks go to Esco Yancey for his excellent organizational work at North Garner and to Joe Stegall and John Thomas for their directing assistance. Also, many thanks go to Mort's trophy shop in Raleigh for providing $2,527 worth of trophies for only $1,300. Mononucleosis-laden Robert Singletary served as chief director, despite sleeping more than he directed.

169 PLAY IN WAKE COUNTY SCHOLASTICS

By Robert Singletary

A record 169 players gathered for the largest scholastic tournament in North Carolina history March 17 at Martin Middle School for the second annual Wake County Scholastics. When the dust finally cleared late that night, Enloe, Ligon, Hunter, and Powell won the team titles in their respective divisions in the four-round tournament.

A listing of the individual scores and the team round-by-round scores follows. Robert Singletary served as chief director (that's probably why he got mono, though you never know) for the tournament while Louis Cobb provided valuable assistance in the elementary section. Charles Keck of Martin and Esco Yancey organized the tournament for the Wake County Scholastic Chess Association.

John Kirby Wins ICLA Award

John Kirby recently was named one of 25 recipients of the annual Intercollegiate Chess League of America High School merit awards. The criteria for the awards are outstanding chess play, organizational skills, and overall scholastic achievement. John is the third straight North Carolina student to receive the award, following in the footsteps of Oliver Hilz and Rajesh Maingi. John was one of only nine eleventh graders to win the award. NCCA President Robert Singletary is in his second term as President of the ICLA.

Championship Site Determined

The 33rd Annual North Carolina Championship (Open)/David Stern Memorial will be held at North Garner Junior High School (the site of the 1984 North Carolina Scholastics) and is being organized and directed by Robert Singletary. The tournament features lower entry fees and a $1,750 prize fund with all proceeds going to the North Carolina Scholastic Chess Association. In addition, juniors rated under 1600 can enter for a special $5 entry fee. See the upcoming tournaments section for complete details.

The Championship is especially important as new officers will be elected at the annual business meeting to be held September 1 at 10:15 a.m. In addition, there are already quite a few motions to be presented. If you would like to make a motion, please write Secretary-Treasurer Patsy Spurrier.

LPO to Feature Record Prize Fund

The 1984 Lawrence Pfeifferkorn Open will be held July 27-29 in Winston-Salem and will feature a record $11,000 prize fund. The tournament will be held at the Holiday Inn on Cherry-Marshall St. so expect temperatures to be around 60 degrees cooler than last year. This year's edition will be directed by Harry Sabine of Crossville, Tennessee and (as always) is being organized by Alan Lipkin. The 1983 LPO drew 340 participants and 1984 looks to be no different. For complete details, see the upcoming tournaments section.

UPCOMING TOURNAMENTS

Below is a listing of all tournaments cleared by June 1 through clearing-house director Robert Singletary through the end of 1984. All directors and organizers are asked to clear tournaments through Robert by calling him at 919-782-3809 after 5:00 p.m. or by writing him at the address on the front page.

GAMES

Gambit readers have been uncharacteristically modest recently, evidenced by the almost complete lack of game submissions. Thus your Editor is forced to truly desperate measures to fill these pages, namely, printing some of his own games. Don't forget, folks, there's a prize for the best-played NC game of 1984, but you can't win if you don't enter.

ENGLISH OPENING

R. Kolvick                      L. Fuerstman
Megaton IV                      April 4, 1984

1.c4 Nf6 2.Nc3 e5 3.g3 a6 (This move, which allows Black to play Bc5 without fear of White trading his QN for it, is my TN. The position that arises has many of the characteristics of what is now referred to as the English vs. the Timman System.)
4.Bg2 Bc5 5.Nf3 (Preferable is 5.e3, 6.Ne2, and 7.d4)
5...Nc6 6.O-O d6 7.e3 Bg4 8.h3 Bd7 (Certainly not 8...Be6?, nor does Bh5 follow the theme. Black maintains pressure on h3). 9.d4 Ba7 10.b4!? ed 11.ed O-O 12.b5 ab 13.cb Ne7 14.Bg5 Ng6 15.Qd3 c6 16.bc bc 17.Ne4? (Probably a mistake, as the text will show.) 17...Bf5 18.Nxf6ch Qxf6 19.Qc3 Qe6 20.g4 (The ambitious Qxc6 allows Black great control of the central lines.) 20...Be4 21.Rfel Qd5 22.Rxe4 (The only chance for some play.) 22...Qxe4 23.Rel Qd5 24.a3 Rfe8 25.Be3 Qb5 26.Bf1 Qb7 27.Nd2 d5 28.Nb3 Bb6 29.Nc5 Qe7 30.Rb1 Bxc5 31.dc Nh4 32.Rb4 Rab8 33.Ra4 Rb1 34.Qd3 Nf3ch 35.Kh1 Qe5 36.Bf4 Qal 37.Qxf3 Rxf1ch 38.Kg2 (Kh2, not letting the King get flushed out, seems better. Then Black concentrates on the f pawn.) 38...Rh1 39.Kg3 h6 40.g5 hg 41.Bxg5 Rglch 42.Kh4 Qb1! 43.Bf4 Qh7ch 44.Qh5 Qc2 45.Qe5 Rxe5 46.f3 (What is going on?) Qh7ch O-1 (If Qxa4??, Stalemate!)

IRREGULAR OPENING

Curt Jones (2295)                      C. Alden
N.C. Open.                      Sept. 5, 1983

1.g3 Nf6 2.Bg7 d5 3.f4 c5 4.d6 Nc6 5.Nf3 g6 6.O-O Bg7 7.c3 O-O 8.Qc2 d4 (White has opened quietly, but if allowed to post a pawn on e4 he will acquire a very powerful center) 9.e4 de e.p. 10.Nh4? (With this and the next move White play too subtly; rather than simply recapturing the pawn, he tries first to score some small positional gains.) 10...Qd6 11.Na3? GIUOCO PIANO

C. Alden
N.C. Open

Maurice Dana
Sept. 5, 1983

25.Q-K3
The crucial position.

1.P-K4 P-K4 2.N-KB3 N-QB3 3.B-B4
B-B4 4.P-B3 B-N3 5.P-Q4 Q-K2
The "Center-holding" Variation.
Before playing his first move,
White recalled that both players
played the same defences as Black,
and decided a game in the style of the last century would favor the more ancient player.
6.O-O P-Q3 7.P-KR3 N-B3 8.P-QR4
P-QR3 9.R-K1 O-O 10.P-Q5?!
Prematurely releasing the tension in the center. White could have played 10.P-QN4 immediately without fearing 10...PxP 11.PxP NxNP because 12.P-K5 poses too many problems.
10...N-N1 11.P-QN4 QN-Q2 12.QN-Q2
N-R4!

This would not be possible if White had left his pawn on Q4;
then White could answer 13.NxKP!
13.N-B1 N-B5 14.N-N3 P-N3
Allows White to pick up a tempo, which is not too serious in a closed position, but keeps White's Knight at bay.
15.P-R5 B-R2 16.B-K3 N-B3 17.BxB
RxB 18.Q-Q2 R-R1
At this point both players had glum expressions on their faces: Black because of having to lose a move with his Rook, White because he was recalling 20 years earlier reading a Tarrasch game where Black allowed precisely the same manouvre and went on to attack brilliantly.
19.B-B1 K-R1 20.P-B4 R-KN1 21.P-B5
P-KN4 22.QR-B1 P-N5 23.N-Q4 N/3-R4
24.N/4-B5 Q-N4
Both sides have played thematically,
White expanding on the Queenside and Black pressing on the Kingside. Now White receives a rude shock, and realizes he should have played Q-K3 at some earlier move, because his intended saving move P-R4 now fails to N-R6ch.

25...NxN?
A pity. On the natural NPxP, opening the file, there is a real question if White can survive. In leisurely analysis one might find saving counterchances in 26.BPxP, but under tournament conditions Black has all the practical chances. Now suddenly the KN file is solidly blocked, the Queens come off, and with two Zwischenzugs White takes the initiative.
26.PxN NxQP 27.QxQ RxQ 28.NxQP PxN 29.P-R4 R-N1 30.PxN P-B3? Better here would have been 30...PxP
31.PxP R-Q1 32.R-B7 RxP 33.B-Q3 R-Q2
And here, for better or worse, Black should try 33...RxP
34.R/1-QB1 R-Q1 35.RxPch K-N1 36.R/1-B7 P-B4 37.B-B4 R-Q3 38.P-R5 and White won in a few more moves.
